Durga Aspires to Become a Doctor

Durga Balasubramani is one four million children positively impacted by AIF's Digital Equalizer (DE) program. DE empowers Durga with quality educational opportunities, enabling her to pursue her dream to become a doctor. Digital Equalizer utilizes technology to bridge the educational and digital divide in India by transforming under-resourced schools into dynamic places to learn. Watch how.

Westbridge Capital and AIF Partner to Improve Access to Quality Education in Migrating Communities of India

Through a four-year partnership, AIF's Learning and Migration Program (LAMP) will empower over 43,500 children in Odisha, Chhatisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, and Uttar Pradesh by bridging their learning deficits and raising their learning levels in STEM. Learn more.

Women Philanthropists of Bay Area Circle of Hope Give to LAMP

Funds raised by twenty-five passionate women in the Bay Area will empower 300 adolescent girls in Barmer, Rajasthan by supporting them academically and equipping them with essential life-skills. Circle of Hope inspires and empowers
Mission Recycling Project Reaches Over 1.4 Million Underserved School Children

Coca-Cola and AIF have reached over 1.4 million school children and their community members across India in raising awareness on sustainability and recycling PET waste through the Support My School: Mission Recycling Project. Learn more.

Public-Private Partnerships and the Role of CSR

At the recently concluded AIF Clinton Fellowship Endpoint Seminar, Ishteyaque Amjad, Vice President of Public Affairs, Communications and Sustainability at Coca Cola India, addressed Fellows on the significance of partnerships and the role of corporate social responsibility in social and economic development. Read more here.

Join Us!

We hope to see you soon at one of our upcoming events:

5K Run and Carnival
September 8 - Chicago, IL

The American India Foundation has the top rating from Charity Navigator. This rating verifies that we have been, and will continue to be, a transparent, accountable and efficient steward of your trust and support.

---

The American India Foundation has the top rating from Charity Navigator. This rating verifies that we have been, and will continue to be, a transparent, accountable and efficient steward of your trust and support.